BASIC APOLOGETICS

In this talk you will learn how to give a basic defence of your faith. It is important for all Christians to feel confident when defending their faith with so many competing world views.

◆ Tuesday 14 May

SAINTS AND SINNERS

Anne Shipman will use her book Saints and Sinners to talk about the Oxford Movement and Canon Shortland: a dynamic and transformative cleric, to whom we in the Catholic Church of Penzance owe a great debt of gratitude.

◆ Wednesday 18 May

GROWING LINKS, PENZANCE

A presentation by Lynne Dyer of Growing Links, an organisation that specialises in various community projects, helping all ages to be active in an outdoor environment, such as growing, cooking and sharing food.

◆ Thursday 16 May

NATIONAL GARDEN SCHEME and PROPAGATION

Want to know more about how the NGS helped with our community garden, and what the NGS does within West Penwith? Graham Sykes from Trevenna Cross Nursery will give a talk about the NGS and a demonstration on the art of propagation.

◆ Friday 17 May

CAFOD

John Cosgrove will give a talk with a short video on the worldwide extent of Cafod's reach, in countries ravaged by war and famine.
